Tyniece Hall Jones, Fashion Designer & CEO Swagger House of Art & Fashion ~ California Area

My name is Tyniece Hall Jones. I am a designer, buyer, fashion director. Originally from Milwaukee, WI., my introduction to the fashion industry began as a model in 2004 soon after I became an assistant for the designer. My positive eye for fashion and my creative flare eventually led me to the high paced world of fashion with styling features in videos with locals artists. I began designing custom pieces where I decided to launch my ready to wear brand which included an eclectic mix of vibrant colors, expressive patterns, and edgy hardware catering to a diverse genre of glamour, rock, pop, classic and edgy urban street wear. "I design for women who desire a stylish, edgy, and feminine look." I also raise funds by using fashion as my platform. I enjoy collaborating with designers and makeup artists. Swagger House Art Fashion it is style with a purpose. I empower others by giving them a spotlight and by encouraging others to stay positive. No matter what life throws your way you can get through it with faith and support. Use your voice it's time to break your silence and fashion can be expressive!

Jessica Caver Lindholm, Founder of ToLivingFree ~ Fort Collins, Colorado

When I started this business back in 2014 at the age of 29, I wasn't thinking about becoming a millionaire. I was waiting tables at various restaurants, cleaning people's houses, doing personal training sessions, every odds and ends task I could just to delay having to get a "real" job. In short, I stopped needing to hit that 7-figure goal to feel like a success. I stopped needing anything to feel good enough and instead felt a current of deep inner knowing that I am and that is enough. Knowing the entire universe resides within and that 'I Am' for me and for you. I allowed the self-organizing energy of the entire universe to work through me. I fully understand now that it's never about what we do but always about the energy we do something with. If I tried to plan this entire process out it would have felt overwhelming. Instead, divine, my highest self, just kept giving me the next inspired and aligned step so that I could gracefully bring it together with ease, alignment and flow. Everything I've created that's felt truly good and lasted in my life has come from being aware of the moments where inspiration struck and taking that aligned action.
